

Grupo Sports World announces the start of operations of club number 46: SW Miguel Ángel de Quevedo, in Mexico City

Mexico City. October 15th, 2015 – Grupo Sports World, S.A.B. de C.V. (“Sports World”, “SW”, “the Company”, or “the Group”) (BMV: SPORT), the leading operator of family fitness clubs in Mexico announced today the start of operations of club number 46, Sports World Miguel Ángel de Quevedo, in Mexico City, with more than 1,000 sold memberships during the pre-sale process.

This club is located inside the “Oasis Coyoacán” mall on the corner of Av. Universidad and Miguel Ángel de Quevedo. This area stands out for the attractive combination of commercial offering, cultural sites, residential and corporate offices since it is very close to the historic center of Coyoacán. The mall has several foreign-brand stores, restaurants and services and is focused on maintaining a family environment.

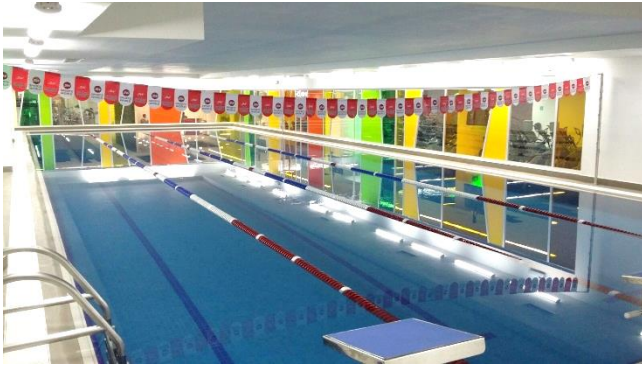

Sports World Miguel Ángel de Quevedo is a family club so the facilities include free and controlled-weight areas, cardio equipment, group classrooms, a semi-Olympic swimming pool, dressing rooms, steam room and sauna. It also offers the FitKidz area designed exclusively for children, where they have their own classrooms and independent dressing rooms. The facility provides a wide variety of sports with state-of-the-art equipment and programs, led by certified coaches.

Sports World has opened 32 clubs since it held its IPO in October 2010, and has consolidated itself as the leading family sports club chain in Mexico with 46<sup>1</sup> clubs in operation and 2 more under the process of construction and membership pre-sale. The Company continues expanding and strengthening its footprint in Mexico City and its Metropolitan Area as well as in other cities. Currently, of the total 48 Sports World clubs, 36 clubs are located in Mexico City and its Metropolitan Area and the remaining 12 are in other cities in the country.
